Dedication

We, the SENIORS, are thankful for the boys in the uniform of our country — thankful that there are AMERICANS who are willing to give up their homes to fight so that classes like ours may continue to graduate and to take their places in a democratic society. To these, we, the class of 1945 dedicate this

FOR YOUR TWENTY-FIVE YEARS
OF SERVICE in St. Casimir
Parish accept these sincere wishes: May Christ,
your master, support you
the day long, till the shades
lengthen and the evening comes, and your work is done.

To gain God's greater glory
No task seemed burdensome,
And faithfully you've labored,
To make His kingdom come.

But sweeter than the gratitude
And earthly fame you've won,
The Master speaks within your heart
The precious words: WELL DONE.

WISHES

Senior Diary

September:

- 18- Alma Mater opens portals to forty-eight proud, confident Seniors.
- 25- Class Officers elected to guide us through forthcoming year.

October:

- 2- After a week of frenzied campaigning, High School officers elected by school vote.
- 3- We make our choice of well-earned class rings.
- 11- Seniors sponsor "Hello Dance", first social event of school year. Evening is highlighted by farewell party for Raymond Bartkowski, first of our class to leave for service.
- 17- Raymond Bartkowski leaves for Navy.

November:

- 22- We don blue jeans and straw hats for gala Barn Dance. Following the dance, we attend a small farewell party for Anthony Michno, second Senior to be inducted.

December:

- 8- Six prominent Casmirette Staff members attend Press Conference at Art Institute.
- 28-29- In the midst of our Christmas Vacation, we have our graduation pictures taken.

January:

- 2- Tom Wojnowski leaves for Navy.
- 27- The night of nights, our Prom. All formal, we attend the memorable affair at the Crystal Ballroom.
- 28- Catholic Guild presents "The Miser", for which the Seniors had reserved seats.
- 31- Our Class rings are blessed at "Ring Day" celebration which we, as Juniors, originated.

February:

- 12- A never-to-be forgotten farewell party is sponsored for Stanley Sienkowski and Eugene Wloch, two of our best loved friends. Truly a loss to the Casmirette production staff.
- 21- Through sleet and rain, we make our way to get a last glimpse of Stanley and Eugene leaving for the Army from M. C. Depot.
- 25- A proud day indeed, as we present Sr. Mary Hugoline with our $400 Memorial Gift.

March:

- 25- Seniors attend Catholic Guilds inspiring Lenten Attraction, "Behold the Man".

April:

- 4- Chester Janeczko inducted into Army.
- 6-7-8- Performances of class play "Conquered" greeted by thunderous applause. This in addition to congratulation was ample reward to the cast for the time and work involved.
- 11- Seniors sponsor "Spring Frolic", first post Lenten Dance.
- 16- Peter Pawluszka leaves for Navy.

May:

- 10- Off to Belle Isle, for the annual outing, which included the usual bike riding and canoe-tipping.

June:

- 1-5- Examinations. All the joy of living suspended for the time.
 - 5-9- Commencement Week.
 - 8- Senior Class Day - Honors Night.
 - 10- Graduation Exercises- we close our books on the last chapter of our High School days.

AS TIME

1941-42 Bewildered, befuddled, bedecked and beguiling, 57 new freshies passed through the open doors of St. Casimir and deposited themselves, tablet and pencils, in the two classes assigned to them. It wasn't long before we all became acquainted, and the next few weeks found everyone dashing thither and yon for books, classrooms and lost friends.

There are moments in one's life that are never forgotten. Initiation is such a moment in our dairy. However, we soon forgot our embarrassing experiences, and settled down to a period of solid studying relieved only by a few days of freedom.

At Christmas time, our first social affair, we did ourselves proud as hosts and hostesses to the whole high school at the annual Christmas party.

And what with basketball and baseball; the dances and skating parties, the year came to an end all too soon.

1942-43 September found us with a brand new title of Sophisticated Sophomores. There were only 41 of us left including 3 new girls. By heritage we enjoyed doing to others what they had done to us, and the Initiation was a side splitting success. Frequent sirens and persisted air raid drills made us war concious and we threw ourselves into every bond and red cross drive.

The only time we didn't make a fuss about staying after school was when we had an after-school dance sponsored by the Juniors.

1943-44 The final exams rolled around ineventably, and we said "So long for awhile". After a blissful and carefree summer we returned known to all as Juniors. Our ranks had increased to 50. We were ready to fill the responsible positions for another busy year in the Alma Maters glorious history. There were difficult studies to master, club meeting to organize, dances to sponsor, but we made the grade.

Remember, the way Shakespear's "Merchant of Venice", broadened our literary mind? The way our daily conversation was spiced with valences, equations and elements? How pleased the girls were when notes passed to each other could not be deciphered when caught because of the girls' peculiar "shorthand"? Remember the wienie roast at River Rouge, the Valentine Dance, and the many knocks and bumps received from our Skating Parties; our introduction of Ring Day, and as a climax the Junior - Senior Banquet? Remember? How could we forget.

Again June rolled around and we bade farewell to the Senior class and looked forward to occupying their seats next year.

1944-45 With a certain pride and yet with sadness 48 dignified Seniors entered the halls of St. Casimir for the last time. However the heavy schedule of studies and activities left us little time to brood.

Editing the Casmirette was a monthly duty, but by endless efforts of our staff we did all in power to make it a success.

Choosing the class rings was one of our great pleasures. Following soon after in the way of pleasures was the taking of our pictures at Mazur Studio in caps and togas.

The Prom Committee made elaborate and successful plans for the annual Senior Prom, which was held at the Crystal Ballroom of the Book Cadillac and will be treasured in the memories of each Senior in the years to come.

A lasting tie of friendship between the Juniors and Seniors came from the lovely Ring Day the latter prepared for us. It has left unforgettable memories with us.

"Conquered" was selected as the Senior Play. After weeks of rehearsal the play was presented to the audience that received it with an enthusiasm which fulfilled all expectations.

The year was climaxed with the Junior - Senior Banquet and for once we sat back and let others do the work.

On June 10th with tearful eyes the Seniors received their diplomas and ----- we graduated.

Thus ends our class history. We now stand on the threshold of a new life, so full of adventure and yet so uncertain. Already five boys have gone to fight for our country and most of the remaining boys will enter soon. The girls too, in various ways will work to bring a lasting peace to a changing world.

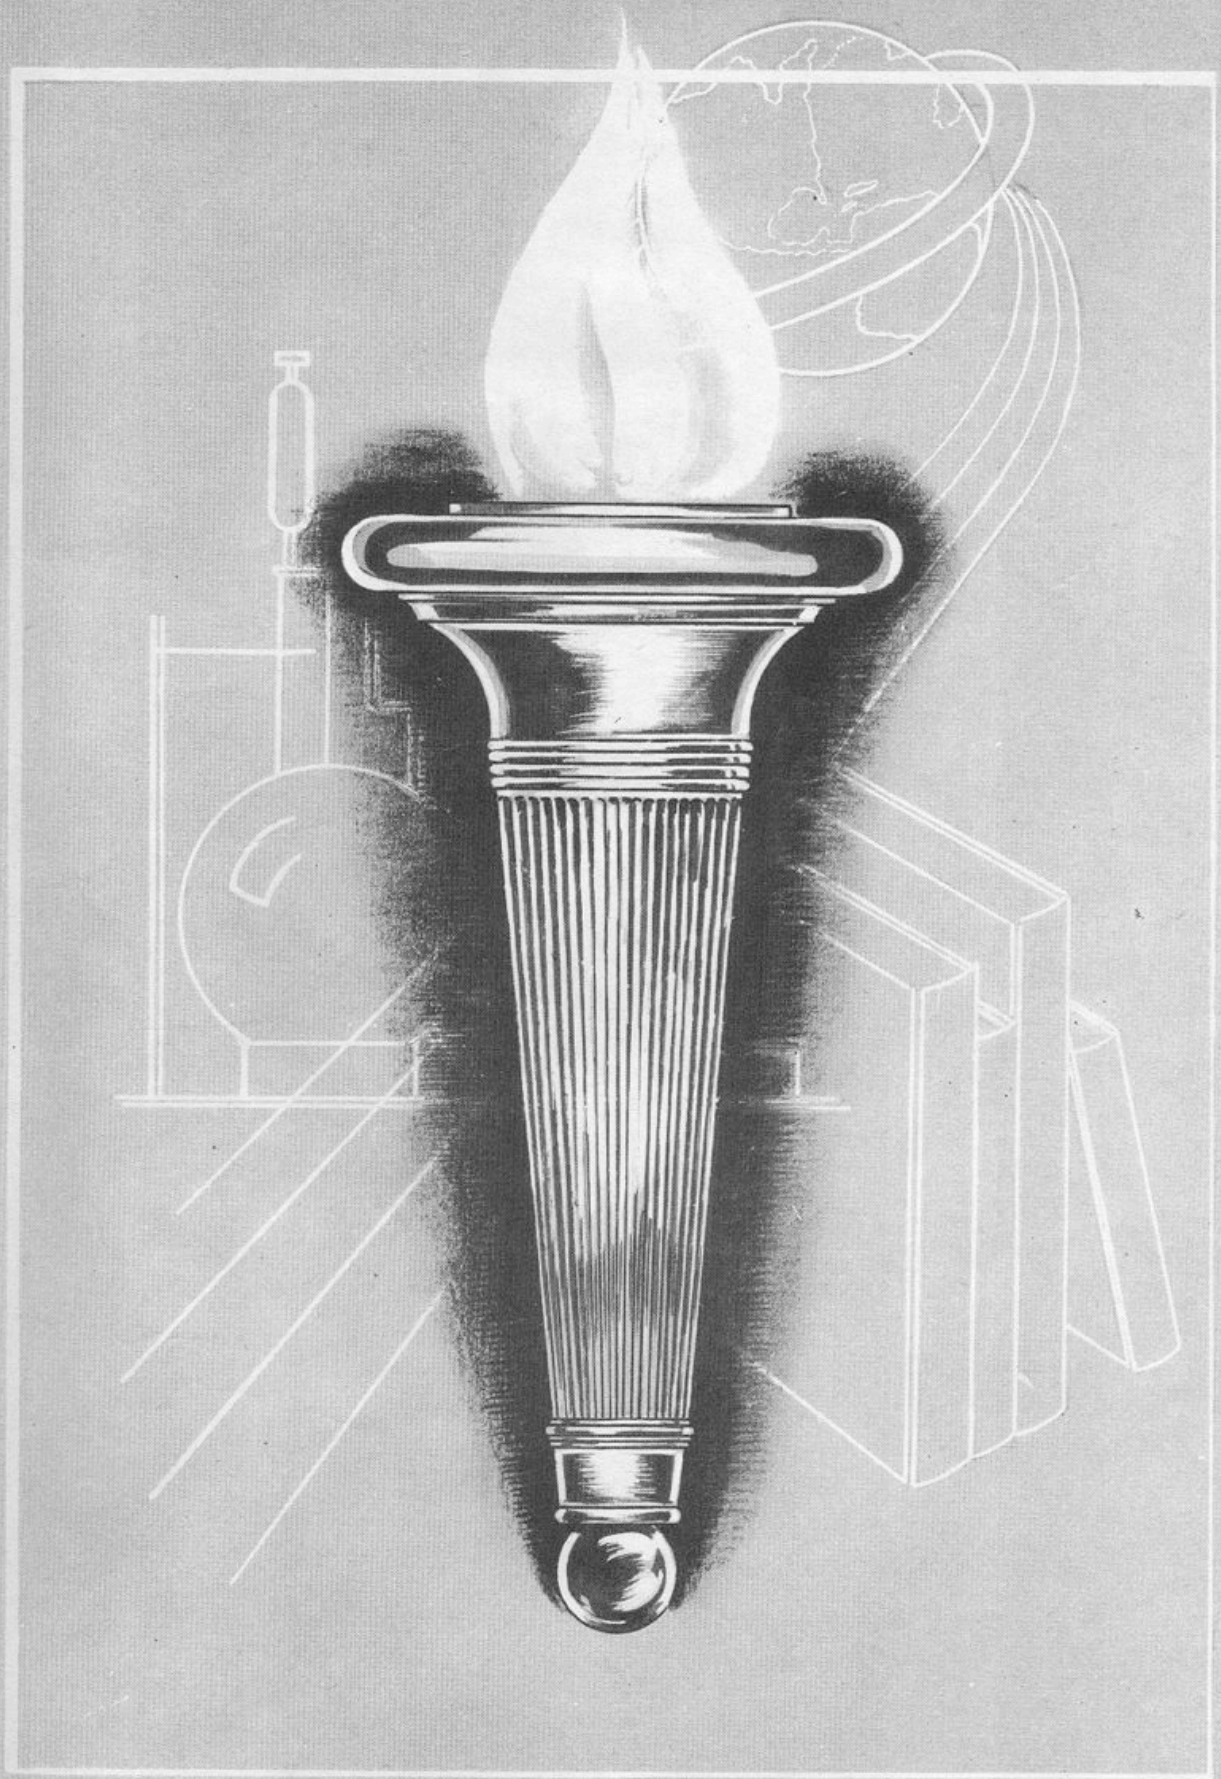

In planning for tomorrow, however, let us not forget yesterday's memories----memories of our youth which will come back to us in moments of loneliness.

Therefore, we, the class of 1945, are deeply appreciative of our Alma Mater and in parting we borrow words from J. Whitcomb Riley's "A Parting Guest"--"Thank--So fine a time!"

These days in the class

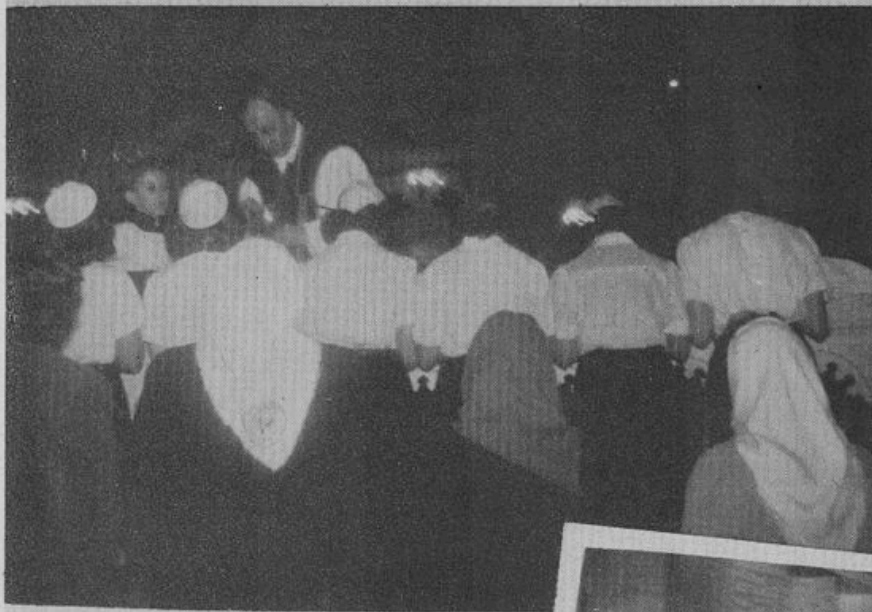

"The war has made many changes in the classroom. Subjects are studied with a new emphasis. Possibly never before in the history of education have students taken such an interest in the current affairs of the world. Possibly never before have the sciences of physics and chemistry played such a vitally essential role in the high school curriculum.

THE STAFF

Here we have our two Casmierecho Staff members earnestly absorbed in their work on the layout. Leonard Brudziński and Leonard Oleszkowicz generously sacrificed time and spared no effort to produce this attractive and memorable little yearbook.

We.....

-----pray fervently and partake of the Holy Eucharist frequently: that Christ's kingdom of peace possess the world; that the Catholic spirit reign supreme in the hearts of all men.

-----go to work.

About one hundred students held part-time jobs in addition to doing their regular daily school work. In most cases they have shown fine cooperation, ability, neatness, good behavior.

-----the Senior girls, displayed our interest in the war effort by joining the Canteen Corps of the American Red Cross. Having completed courses in home nursing and nutrition we willingly accepted tasks appointed. Some of the centers where the girls rendered services were: Blood Bank, Women's Club, Harper Hospital and Pomulus Air Base.

Ring Blessing Performance

Father placed the rings and placed them on the Seniors' fingers.

With inspiring words Father asked the students to cherish the ideals instilled, and ever proclaim their loyalty to St. Casimir, the Alma Mater.

The remaining portion of the program was very well handled by our capable Master of Ceremonies.

We hope this fine event of loyal and social spirit shall live on as an inspirational tradition at St. Casimir High.

...toward, the dancing couples gliding along portrayed a beautiful scene, the memory of which shall linger ever. The outstanding feature was the Grand March, the figures of which were gracefully executed by the Senior and Junior couples.

Readly! I collected and jotted a lot of things but I gave all my notes to Stan to keep for me, and oh! me, he lost 'em. Sooo I just have to tell you those I remember.

THE CONQUERIEIO™

T 6 e

Senior Play

On April 8, after three successive matinees and following an evening performance, the curtain fell with applause and acclaim on the Seniors' production of William Roeder's "CONQUERED".

The play concerned a midwestern family: Warren Trude (L. Brudzinski) a wealthy business man, with atheistic convictions refused to give his consent to the erection of a Catholic church in the neighborhood. Despite the efforts of Mr. Brandon (L. Oleszkowicz), the young attorney, in love with Warren's sister, Dorothy (D. Turk), Warren persists in his decision. His little son Junior (T. Ozog) is afflicted with spinal meningitis, which every scientific and medical effort of Dr. Norman (B. Jankowiak) fails to cure. Under the tender care of a capable and efficient Catholic nurse, Miss Mary Reilly (V. Peck) whom Warren highly respects and trusts, the child develops a love for the Infant Jesus.

The plot thickens as Mrs. Van Ellsworth (V. Turowski), a social butterfly schemingly designs a plan against Miss Reilly, with the hope that she may be able to have her dismissed by Warren.

During a Corpus Christi procession, the crippled child pleadingly invokes God's mercy and is miraculously cured. Warren's pride is conquered; the Savior triumphs over him, he becomes a Catholic. His high regard and affection for Miss Reilly culminates in adorable devotion, love and marriage.

It's been a thrill to watch V. Peck and L. Brudzinski, the leading characters, evolve this deeply religious plot and the delightful romance connected with it. F. Dudka in the role of the maid; R. Williams in that of Mr. Grant Conley; and A. Maksym, the conscientious butler, added much to the interest and success of the play.

The characters of the cast created much admirable comment and enthusiastic approval from the appreciative audiences.

CONGRATULATIONS SENIORS ON THIS SUPERB PLAY !
