St. Casimir Church

Rev. V. Szymanski

St. Casimir School

Rev. A. Nieckarz

We, the class of 1951, gratefully dedicate this volume of the CASMIRECHO to our beloved Pastor, Edward S. Maisel. We offer good wishes to our spiritual leader in recognition of his forty years in the service of God, thirty of which were spent at Saint Casimir Parish. We pray that God may shower upon him the choicest rewards in return for the years of labor.

We Are Especially Thankful to . . .

Our Principal Sister Mary Clementine, the dynamic force behind the St. Casimir High School. We deeply appreciate her efficiency, untiring service, generous cooperation and guidance.

Our teachers who are wholeheartedly interested in helping us to develop our best selves in terms of Catholic ideals and Catholic culture.

Sr. M. Arcadia	Sr. M. Gertrude
Sr. M. Bozene	Sr. M. Joanna
Sr. M. Cordia	Sr. M. Laetantia
Sr. M. Edigna	Sr. M. Virgilia

Our dear parents who make sacrifices generously to give us a Catholic education.

Foreword

The quest for PEACE continues with renewed determination. During the years, which have elapsed since the Second World War, much time and labor was and is being spent in deliberation and effort to establish permanent PEACE. In spite of all the plans, today the grim international struggle goes on and becomes more and more ominous, mainly, because in the Council Chamber where conferences are held by the world's statesmen the Divine Light is not sought. Yet the world has only to turn to Our Lady, for to Her Christ has entrusted this PEACE.

In recent years, Mary has manifested her protective interest in mankind by her intervention. At Fatima she has called on us to return through Her to Christ, the Prince of PEACE.

We are grateful that during the four years at Saint Casimir High School, our teachers have impressed upon us Mary's role and the importance of religion in our personal, cultural, social, and political endeavors. The recent pastoral of our Bishops has strengthened us in this conviction which has been inculcated by our teachers: it is religious education alone which develops in us those spiritual qualities essential to individual happiness and good citizenship, namely, the sense of God, the sense of spiritual direction, the sense of individual responsibility, and the sense of mission in this life.

Hence as you page through this yearbook, we trust that you will review with us the ways and means by which our Alma Mater has truly made us God-centered, has brought us to see His commandments as guideposts giving unerring direction to our steps, and finally, has made us mindful of the supernatural value of our actions and deeply aware of our mission.

With the rosary in our hand and with the prayer on our lips "To the Prince of PEACE through the Queen of PEACE" we step into the world to work and to live for lasting PEACE.

To Peace . . . through God-centered education

The Jociste Motto.

A survey in World History convinces the Sophomores that the Catholic Church alone has the cure for the ills which afflict society.

By instructing the Seniors in the true nature of Christian democracy, Sister M. Arcadia builds an enlightened, conscientious American citizenship.

Literature . . .

Literature is the nurse of wisdom . . . A power forming thinkers and leaders of society.

BRO. GEORGE N. SHUSTER, S. M.

R. Parpart and L. Gurka consider the moral implications involved in MACBETH - the great tragedy of human ambition run riot.

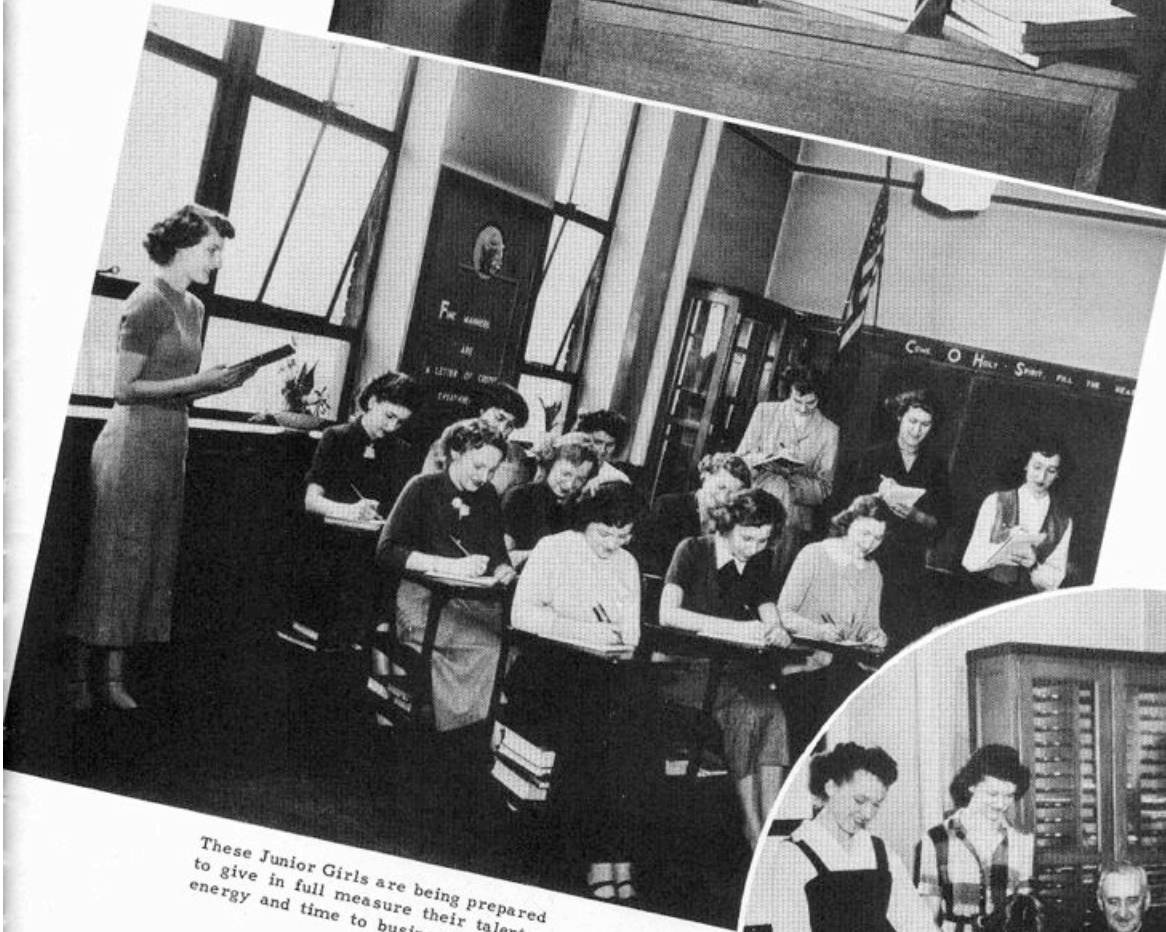

A. Peterson and her assistants are kept busy in the "powerhouse" of S.C.H. where we get the truth which will enable us to take a stand in the world dealing deathblows at Christianity.

B. Conant, W. Nusser, J. Taube, E. Okray, M. Bialek, J. Kay and C. Cybulski are coached by Sister M. Edigna to speak correctly, write intelligently and use grammar functionally.

*Training for a career in business
is a full-time job.*

Sister M. Gertrude, with power and ingenuity teaches
"budgeting for better living"
to L. Nalepa,
G. Misiak, G. Basta,
J. Dzik and R. Boyk.

These Junior Girls are being prepared to give in full measure their talents, energy and time to business pursuits.

Here's a direct transfer of skill to on-the-job production. C. Turczyn, G. Wasilewski, P. Gruba, N. Lelo and
W. Karakula give a hand to Rev. E.
Maisel.

Our Tickets to Fame

Sister M. Bozene not only shares her love and knowledge of music with R. Bialach, G. Basta, P. Ciesielski, M. Bernardi, A. Ozog and L. Orlikowski, but she also cultivates good taste in music.

Music makes mankind and the world better. It charms and brightens the grave routine of a Freshman's life.

Beauty, utility and skill are developed efficiently by Sister M. Joanna in the Juniors who have the opportunity of self-expression in the crafts.

Arts and Languages . . .

Drafting conveys the idea of the designer to the mechanic...and there's always a demand for draftsmen.

The Freshmen, under Sister M. Cordia's guidance, tap the rich treasures pagan and Christian enshrined in Latin.

W. Trybuski enlivens the Language Class with interesting stories, anecdotes, customs, traditions, so illustrative of the vitality of the Polish people.

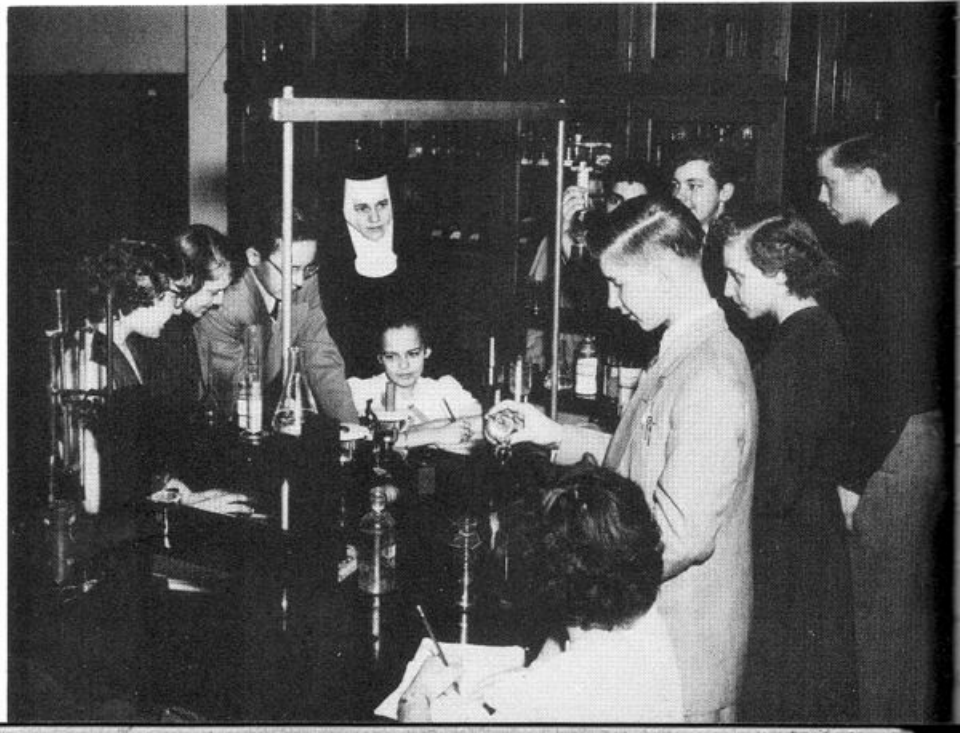

With keen interest, Our Pastor Father Maisel watches M. Bernardi, P. Kaspzyk, P. Kajawa and R. Nowakowski calculate the magnitude and direction of concurrent forces.

P. Kaspzyk and R. Kania spend many an hour in the Laboratory, the workshop of the individual scholar. Here they are measuring the velocity of sound.

The Frosh spark of interest in Science is fanned anew by demonstrations performed with Sister M. Virgilia's help.

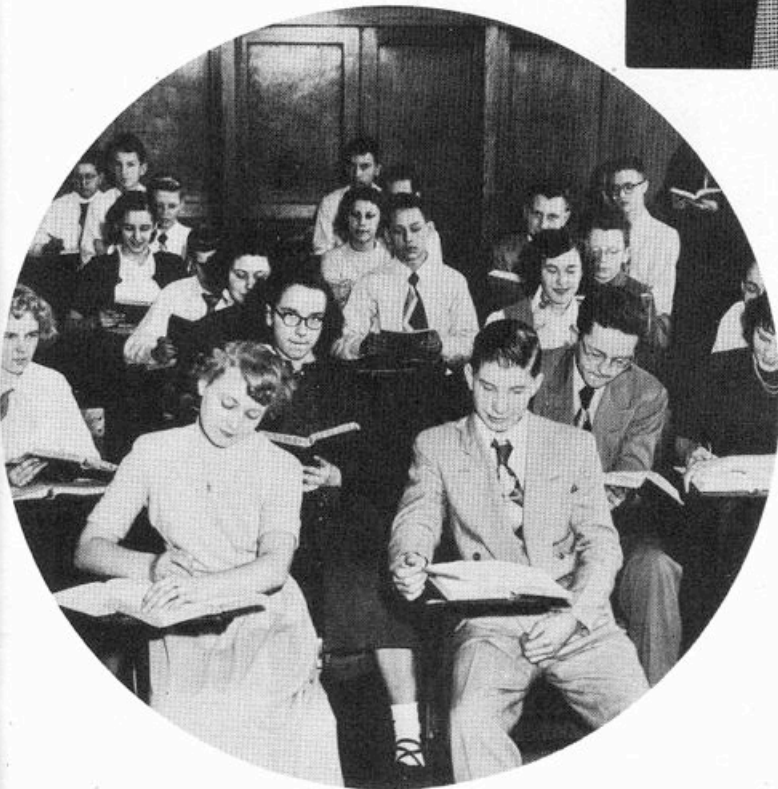

*True science leads,
prepares, directs souls
to the faith.*

POPE PIUS XI.

Mathematics—the finest training of the human mind.

PASCAL.

According to L. Orlikowski, S. Kaczmarek, A. Ozog, R. Skalski and R. Bialach, there is nothing like putting to practice the fundamentals of Algebra II.

Algebra I is fun...no stragglers here, for the Freshmen are earnest in developing the ability to use Math in life situations.

With common instruments, N. Giczewski, D. Jaros, C. Lewandowski, F. Malec, J. Willim, B. Mazur, L. Bienek, and L. Gruba readily verify for themselves the laws controlling the properties of figures.

To Peace . . . through the development of individual responsibility

Ideal for the Apostolate

The Seniors don their caps and gowns to give homage to the Eucharistic King during the Forty Hours.

The Queen's Teens are fulfilling the demands of Fatima: they say the Rosary daily with devotion.

Margaret Bernardi graduates, her brother Ed enrolls...

P. Kaspzyk, L. Gurka, and R. Kania, show the importance of the Catholic Press in combating the evils of anti-Christianity.

Citizens and Statesmen of Tomorrow

They put their nose to the grind so that their party may win.

Sister M. Clementine reviews the principles of Liberty and Democracy with the candidates of the Lucky and the Liberty Parties. Speeches, posters, rallies, and parades give the election a note of realism.

The Backbone of Democracy

B. Conant, R. Smehoin,
R. Adamczyk, R. Kolnitys,
J. Zapinski, N. Lelo, C. Bazner,
R. Nowakowski, and T. Bartus, realize the importance of that "one extra vote."

Congratulations are extended by Fr. E. Maisel, Fr. V. Szymanski and Fr. A. Nieckarz to the newly elected Officers: President - Norbert Zapinski, Vice-President - Jerome Malolepszy, Secretary - Patricia Ciesielski, and Treasurer, Gerald Misiak.

L. Gurka, assisted by E. Jurewicz, E. Skolarus, R. Parpart, R. Matey and L. Giloski, announces the election results.

Activities Enriching Student Life

The Central Post Office stamps, sorts and distributes loads of Christmas mail.

Youth Leaders Today - World Leaders Tommorrow are the Class Presidents:
E. Lelo, D. Jaros, J. Zapinski, R. Parpart, G. Basta, T. Leszczewicz, B. Mazur, and P. Kwasny.

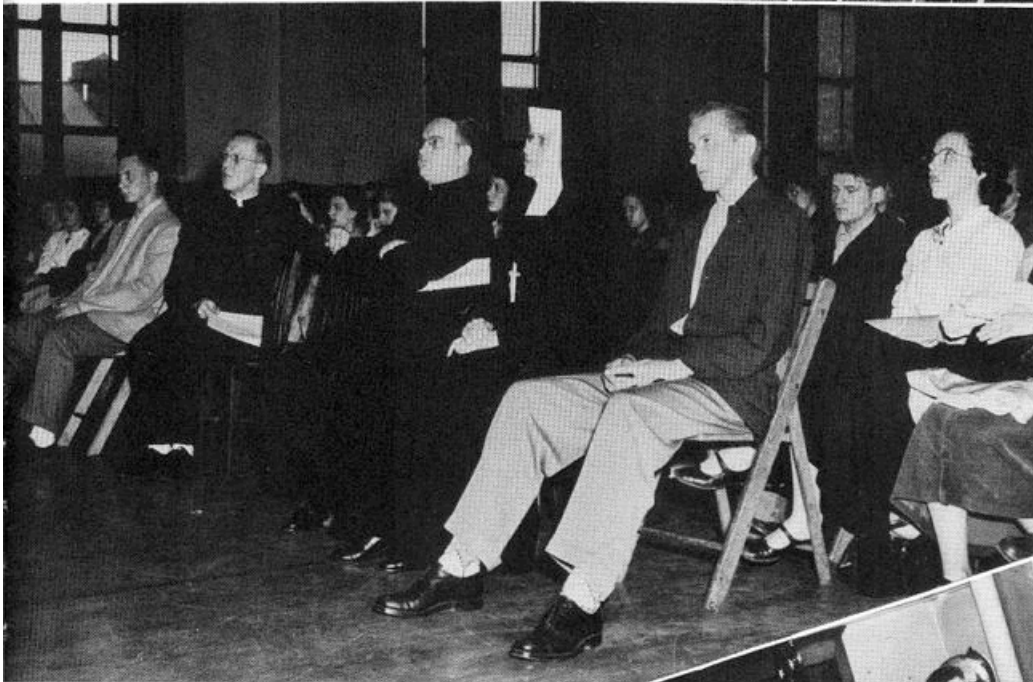

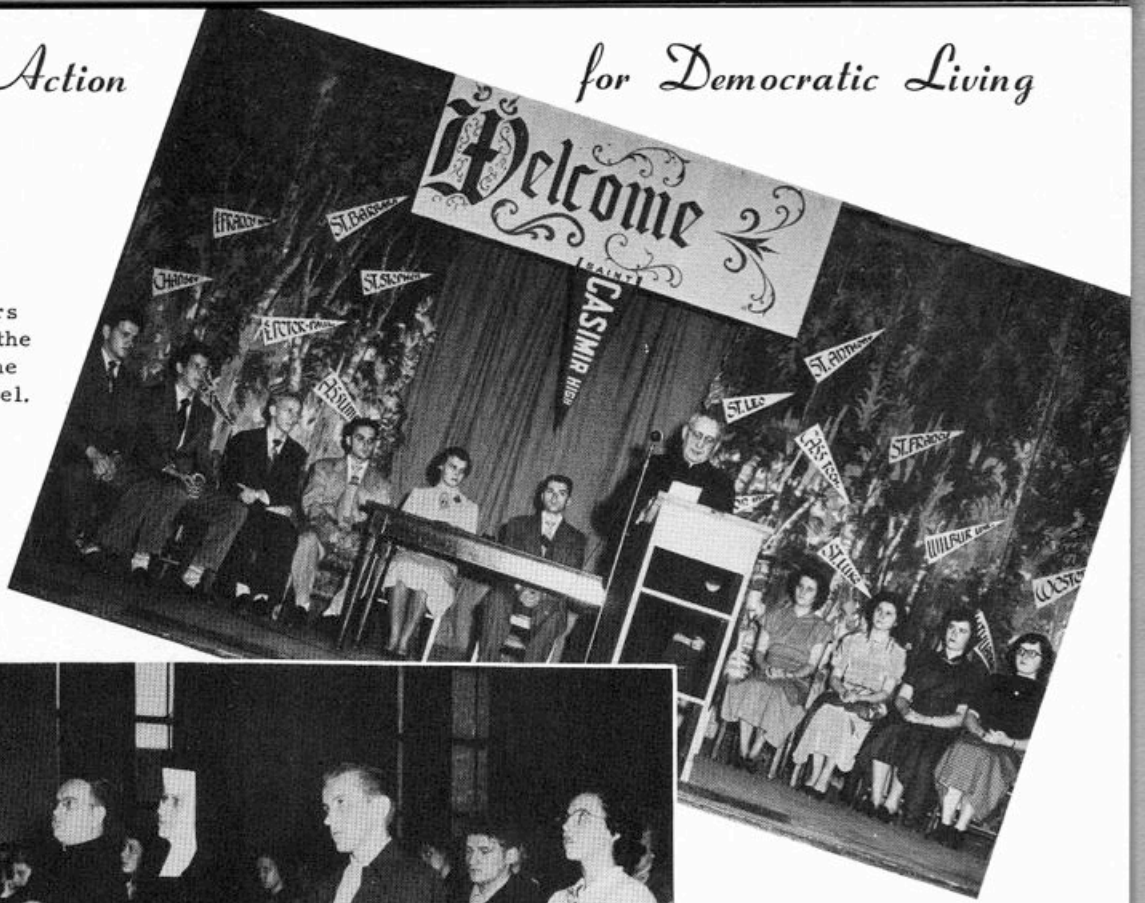

J. Laskowski, L. Nalepa, D. Welker, J. Mackiewicz, R. Strake, R. Parpart, A. Shumack, N. Zapinski, and I. Macielak contribute wholeheartedly to the Patron Drive's Success.

Democratic Action

for Democratic Living

The solemn hour:
newly elected officers
listen attentively to the inspiring words of the Pastor, Father Maisel.

The first general assembly
finds R. Parpart,
Fr. V. Szymanski,
Fr. A. Nieckarz,
Sr. M. Clementine
and G. Olson
a pleasant part of the interested audience.

Intellect is broadened by association . . . N. Zapinski stimulates loyalty and affords inspiration to the members of the Student Council.

The officers of Our Lady's Sodality and their prefect, P. Kaspzyk, plan with Fr. V. Szymanski a prayer campaign for Russia.

New Sodalists strengthen the elite, front line of defense in the struggles of today.

Fr. A. Nieckarz, Moderator, encourages the Holy Name members to praise God by serving Him and to serve Him by glorifying His Name.

The C.S.M.C. officers: J. Menghini, F. Kwiatkowski and I. Macielak give unstintedly of their time to the Missions.

Co-operation and Co-ordination

Hall Monitors

To Peace . . . through the cultivation of social virtues

The Guest of Honor Fr. Jazowicz, Fr. V. Szymanski, Fr. A. Nieckarz, P. Ciesielski, N. Zapinski and G. Miśiak lend their ear to T. Leszczewicz's greetings.

F. Balint, P. Gruba, D. Warniak, A. Peterson, B. Conant, J. Menghini, L. Orlikowski, I. Macielak, and M. Bernardi are enjoying a hearty breakfast prepared by the Juniors.

So Dear to Our Hearts

Is the Memory of Our Ring Day

J. Mikula admires Pat's ring, the symbol of loyalty to S.C.H.

The fair damsels A. Piontek, J. Kolaska, B. Tadajewski and J. Winowiecki serve delicious food for this gala occasion.

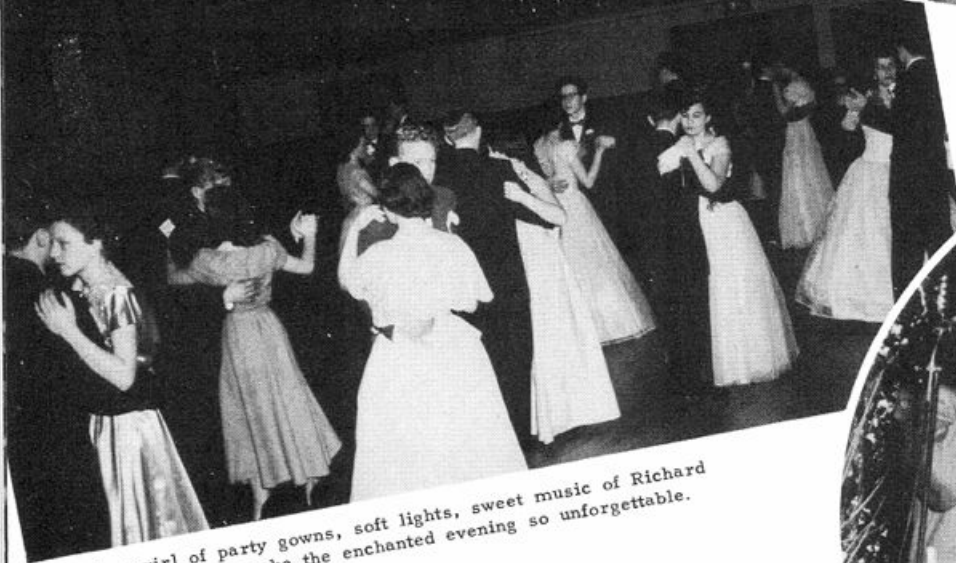

Mrs. J. Burba and Mrs. B. Okray are right on the spot to help prepare the meal.

An Enchanted Evening

In the lounge waiting for refreshments are: N. Zapinski, P. Ciesielski, D. Kronkowski, A. Skrihoniuk, A. Peterson and E. Jurewicz.

The swirl of party gowns, soft lights, sweet music of Richard Wolan blend to make the enchanted evening so unforgettable.

The Queen, F. Kwiatkowski and the King, R. Parpart reign over the evening's festivities.

Another exciting event of the evening: The grand march led by Todd Purse, the M.C. of the "Songs for Your Supper."

Beauty Backed Up By Performance

Give us a song,
Irene and Jerry.

For a few sweet minutes the Glee Club joins the heavenly hosts that heralded the birth of Christ centuries ago.

The lilting melodies of W. Karakula, E. Skolarus,
P. Polosky, L. Orlikowski, D. Kaspyk, and E.
Wojnar gladden our hearts.

Students show talent
under the able direction of Mr. Doto.

Glee Club's Crown and Glory

The principals: (Left to Right) J. Menghini, G. Basta, P. Rojewski, R. Parpart, D. Grucz, F. Kwiatkowski, M. Maisner, J. Blank, T. Wook, D. Kronkowski, D. Garcia, D. Kaspzyk, N. Zapinski, M. J. Grytza, E. Skolarus, I. Macielak, P. Ciesielski and G. Misiak.

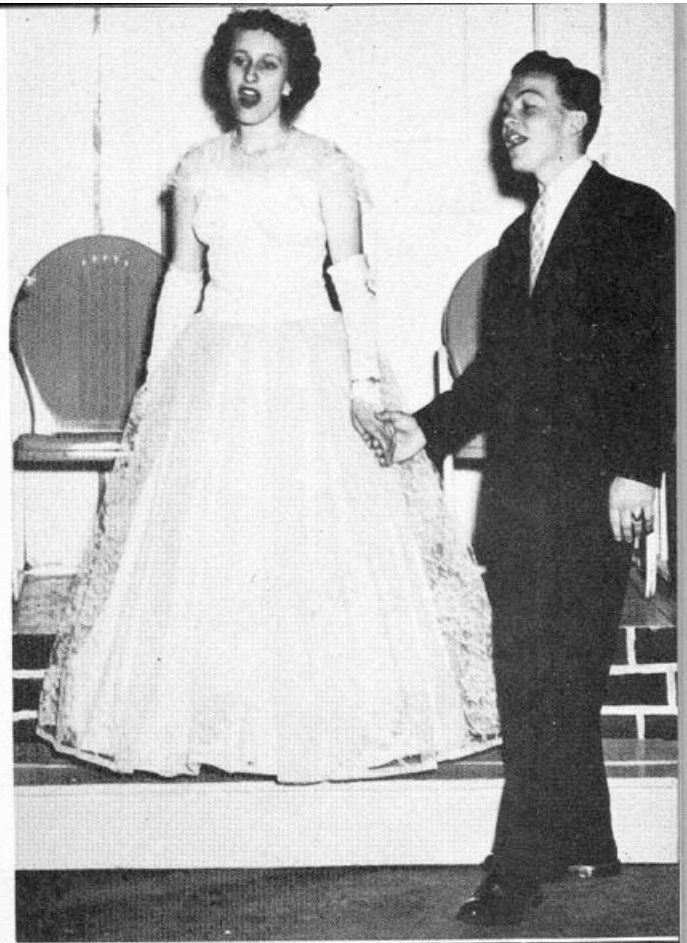

"We are so excited at making our debut. Tho' we are all delighted, we are quite nervous too."

D. Golembiewski and SCS's newest attraction - the Majorettes.

"The Sunbonnet Girl"

Giving their very best -
Irene Macielak as the Sunbonnet Girl,
Edward Skolarus as Bob Coleman.

"Hear the happy throng,
voices loud and strong.
Now tonight with rare delight,
we'll crown the Queen of Song."

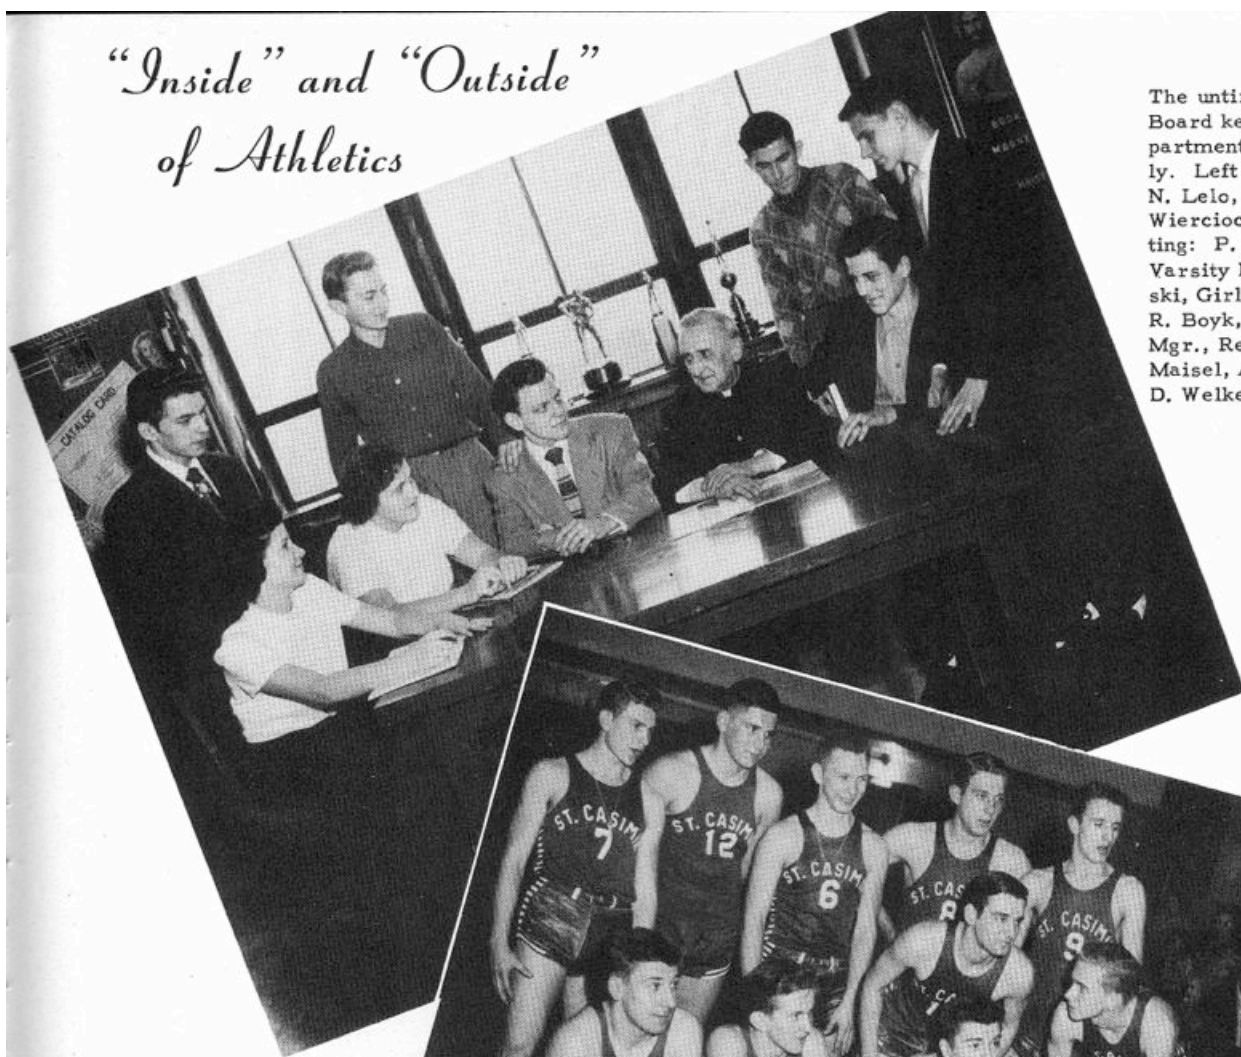

Mr. Doto and the SCS junior band.

To Peace . . . through wholesome channels for the expression of energy

Flames Capture Divisional Title

The invincible Flames suffering only one defeat in seven games share the championship in the Southwest Division with Mt. Carmel. Much of the credit goes to their coach Mrs. Bernice Zadrzynski who developed not only the alert sharp shooting group of forwards but also one of the finest defensive units in the city. Left to right, top row: R. Favazza, B. Tadjewski, D. Maliszewski, B. Reinke, J. Dzik, J. Taube. Bottom row: P. Ciesielski, J. Mucha, I. Macielak, not in the picture: F. Kwiatkowski.

. . . AND TELEPHONES

What have telephones to do with caps and gowns?

That's a question you didn't find in your final examinations. But Michigan Bell has the answer, and it's one that could be mighty important to you. Michigan Bell's business is telephone service. And graduates from high schools like yours are the kind of young women the telephone company likes to have as employees.

Because the telephone is so important in the modern world, Michigan Bell girls find a real thrill in their jobs. They receive excellent pay, too, right from the start . . . have good opportunities for advancement . . . make congenial friends . . . enjoy vacations with pay and other advantages.

So if you're graduating this month, and looking for that kind of a job, Michigan Bell may have one for you—an important job as cashier, teller, switchboard operator, clerk or typist. Why not drop in now at our employment office, 1365 Cass Avenue, Detroit, for an interview?
